Eatonville

A Black Community in Central Florida

What is Eatonville?

Eatonville is “The city of five lakes, three croquet courts, 300 brown skins, 300 good swimmers, plenty guavas, two schools and no jailhouse”.

Eatonville was established on August 15th, 1887 and was the first “negro town” in America, built around Saint John’s water hole.

Youth schooling based around Booker T Washington’s philosophy of training for trades.
